PROFILE

Tawanda spent his first few years in the bush as an auto-mechanic, repairing land drovers for game drives. In 2005, he was on a game drive in the Mosi-Oa-Tunya National Park when he decided to swap his spanners for binoculars and follow his passion to join the guiding profession. Tawanda completed his guiding studies with a specialty in walking safaris, a specialty which engages all of your senses and offers an intimate and enriching safari experience.
